

Amelia Galea

Amelia sees the Trans-Tasman as a great experience to represent Australia and meet other people who share the same interests. Amelia is looking forward to riding other horses and learning new skills to improve herself as a rider. She has worked hard to be at a level that is competitive to represent Australia in New Zealand. She put 110% into everything she does and doesn't quit until the job is done.