

2012 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

PLAYBOY ROY Q-31044

The Australian Quarter Horse Association honours PLAYBOY ROY with induction into the Hall of Fame.

Sire: SENORITAS PLAYBOY USA-1884199
Dam: GENUINE ROSE USA-1948545
Breeder: C.E. BELL & P. CARTER CELINA TEXAS USA
First Owner: YULGILBAR QUARTER HORSE STUD MERRICKS NORTH, VIC.
Owner: YULGILBAR QUARTER HORSE STUD MERRICKS NORTH, VIC.
Profile: 23/4/1987 – 2/3/2011 – Sorrel - 526 Registered AQHA progeny.

PLAYBOY ROY began his career in the United States and was very successful in the cutting pen, earning $70,470 and was the 1992 NCH five year old Open Classic Champion. Sarah Myer visited Texas with Robert Mackay in 1993 and, with the help of Chubby Turner, purchased him and flew him to Australia. In Australia he earned only $6,416 in his very short show career, before retiring to stud at 'Elgee Park'.

PLAYBOY ROY has been a very successful sire. He was Hi Point Money Earning Stallion in 1996. He has produced many successful cutting horses, including:-

- GENUINE PEP Q-34825, winner of the NCHA Futurity in 1999
- YULGILBAR LOTS OF PLAY Q-38173, winner of the NCHA Futurity in 2001
- YULGILBAR ROC N ROY Q-50336 winner of the NCHA Futurity in 2006.

Other champions include ONE MOORE SENOR Q-50370, who is already in the NCHA Hall of Fame, YULGILBAR O PEPPY ROY Q-45769 earning $66,124 and YULGILBAR MISSOURI PLAYBOY Q-40793 earning $53,727.

PLAYBOY ROY was ranked No 6 Leading Sire for all NCHA events in Australia for 2009. He was also ranked No. 6 Leading Sire of Open Futurity winners in 2008, and No. 3 Leading Sire of Open and Non Pro Derby winners in 2008.

He has not only left behind talented cutting horses, but also his progeny are well sort after and well respected in the campdrafting and reining arenas as he is leaving many champions in both events. Many of his progeny are producing very talented horses themselves in all western discipline events.
