

Annette Boyd

Annette is an active breeder of Australian Quarter Horses and owns a Western Saddlery specialising in custom shaped and designed western hats. Her vision is to see an expansion of the Amateur division to encourage further older riders at State and National levels as the Quarter Horse is the perfect breed for these riders. Annette envisions the Trans-Tasman experience as an opportunity to foster new, and strengthen existing bonds, between Australia & New Zealand